

Jamieson Kuhlmann Memorial Fund

The Jamieson Kuhlmann Memorial Fund is a trust created in memory of Jamieson Kuhlmann who died as a result of a tragic accident during a lacrosse game in May, 2008. Jamieson was an exemplary member of the Hill Academy, being a dedicated, determined and hard working student and athlete. Jamieson possessed the courage, spirit, perseverance and work ethic that enabled him to become an outstanding student and athlete.

“Jammer”, as Jamieson was fondly known, was a student at the Hill Academy from September 2007 until his passing in May 2008. In the short time he was with us we watched as Jammer grew to become an outgoing, determined and supportive member of the Hill Family. We want the spirit of Jammer’s story to continue in the lives of future students.

At the Hill Academy we are committed to keeping Jamieson’s legacy alive. Practices and games are broken down with the proud chant “45 – Hill Pride”. Jammer’s stick still hangs from the rack in the Hill House and students work out every day at Jammer’s Gym. The lasting presence of his spirit reminds us all to give our best effort and to work through the challenges or obstacles in our lives to become better people. The Jamieson Kuhlmann Memorial Fund allows us to continue what Jammer started by providing scholarship opportunities for Hill Academy students.
